

Pipeline Maintenance Path

The Keystone Pipeline will be under routine cathodic maintenance from March to the end of December 2024. Cathodic Protection evaluations allow Specialists to gather information and make judgments concerning the integrity of the steel pipe. Contractors may need access to Right of Ways on foot or via UTV. Please be aware.